U.S. Retirement Partners Selects Forefield for News/Content Provider
Content to Be Added to Website

ISELIN, N.J., August 25, 2009—U.S. Retirement Partners (USRP), a national network of 403(b) benefits providers, announced today that it has selected Forefield, Inc. to supplement the USRP website with timely financial content.

Forefield is a leading provider of financial planning knowledge that enables financial institutions and Advisors to better serve customers. Forefield will supply presentation materials, newsletters and seminars from over 3000 resources which are current and compliant. All material will be customized with the USRP brand.

“Forefield is a great way to add up-to-date content to our website,” said James F. Schlucter, Senior Vice President, National Director of Practice Management.

“There is a wealth of information that Forefield is providing to us that will be of enormous value to our Partners, Employers, Advisors and their clients. This information will keep all our constituents current on important financial matters in our industry,” said Mark M. Skinner, President and CEO.

About U.S. Retirement Partners, Inc.
