U.S. Retirement Partners Announces New Vice President

Joining the Practice Management Team

Iselin, NJ, January 9, 2012 – U.S. Retirement Partners (USRP) announced today that Anne D. Johnson has joined them as Vice President of Practice Management. She will be responsible for assisting Partner Firms with organic growth and integrating USRP’s suite of Advisor tools.

Anne joins USRP with an extensive retirement plan and employee benefits background. Most recently, she was Founder and CEO of a marketing and sales coaching firm. Prior to that, she spent more than fifteen years in the 403(b) and employee benefits business with VALIC, Gardner and White, MetLife Resources, and CitiStreet/Copeland. Anne began in the 403(b) business as an Advisor and then took on increasing responsibilities in several field sales management positions.

She will work closely with USRP Partner Firms helping them recruit and train new and existing Advisors, implement productivity tools, and providing overall support to Partner Leaders. Initially, her efforts will be geographically focused in Texas, Michigan, and Utah.

“Ann will instantly become an incredibly valuable ‘extra set of hands’ for us. Her industry-specific knowledge and experience enables her to have an immediate impact on our Partner Firms. She has an excellent background in recruiting and training Advisors. We are so pleased she has joined the team,” said James F. Schlucter, USRP’s Senior Vice President of Practice Management.

“She will play a huge role in our future organic growth as we add new Advisors to our existing Partner Firms. We also look forward to her contributions as we shape our support for our Partners and Advisors in the future. Anne’s broad industry knowledge and market success bring valuable perspective to our Practice Management Group,” said Mark M. Skinner, President and CEO of USRP.
