

Paul S. Bain

President

National Educational Services

---

Paul Bain began working in the K-12 public school district market in 1985. After briefly working for Beneficial Standard Life Insurance Company, he started his own firm, Washington Educational Services, in the greater Seattle area. Mr. Bain relocated to Cincinnati, Ohio in 1989 and started National Educational Services (NES).

Today, with over 50 Advisors in more than 15 states, NES is recognized as a leader in retirement planning for the K-12 marketplace. NES joined U.S. Retirement Partners in 2010.

He graduated from the University of Oregon, where he also played varsity basketball. Mr. Bain is an active member for Washington Adoption Rights Movement and currently coaches high school basketball in the Cincinnati area.
